

Please DO NOT dilute the current IN law concerning phone solicitation. My wife and I enjoy the current quietness at dinner time without the unrequested phone calls interrupting our time together. Please keep out state law the way it is!!!! Even if possible, use the IN law as the pattern for other states instead of lessening our standards. Thanks you for listening. William R. and Lynne R. Schmidt